

Appreciative Alchemy A Spiritual Retreat for Leaders, Coaches and Consultants

“Let yourself be silently drawn by the stronger pull of what you really love.” (Rumi)

Working with Appreciative Inquiry is akin to crossing a spiritual threshold. It requires that you step away from habitual negativity and narratives of inadequacy and into ways of working and being that are life affirming, constructive and positively powerful. In essence, it asks you to be spiritually present and spiritually resonant in all you do.

- Are you longing to explore and deepen your spirituality?
- Are you seeking to enhance your relationship with the Creator?
- Do you wonder how to maintain an appreciative life in turbulent times?
- Do you long for silence and soulful connections?

If questions of spirit and soul are calling you, join Diana Whitney for four days of spiritual inquiry, compassionate conversation and ceremony.

The Appreciative Alchemy Retreat provides time and space for you to expand your appreciative consciousness, to discover emerging life-affirming possibilities, and to learn new ways of living and working in the energetically positive. It is an opportunity to examine and transform the stories you tell about yourself, your spirituality, and your ways of being. It is a safe space to let go of practices that no longer serve you, your family or your organization, and to explore how to more fully welcome spiritual presence in your life. It is a rich and regenerative occasion for personal reflection and renewal within a spiritually supportive learning community.
